

Dear Harold,

Sept 1, 1978

Coincidence? This is a photocopy of a photo shown to me - It was taken in Mexico City in the middle '50's - the man I circled was head of Ford Motor Company in Mexico - his name was Redden - (he is now dead). Unfortunately, you can't tell much from the Xerox but in the original he bears a very strong resemblance the the man coming out of the Russian embassy in Mexico - a very good ^(Reeve's daughter) source! told me that he also was an agent(?) for our government and moved large sums of money around among other things - Makes it a good story - I guess head of Ford in Mexico wouldn't be going into the Russian embassy Capt. Paul
